

In Honor of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day

The Kurt & Tessye Simon Foundation Presents

A Book and a Program

Marra B. Gad, discussing her Memoir:
The Color of Love: A Story of a Mixed-Race Jewish Girl

Originally from Chicago, Ms. Gad is now an award -winning author and television and film producer based in Los Angeles. She remains devoted to Judaism despite the racism and rejections she has often encountered in Jewish spaces. Ms. Gad also writes about her rejection in African American communities.

The Simon Foundation will purchase books for anyone wishing to attend the Program. Please e-mail temple@tbe-sb.org to order your book by December 1, 2020 and RSVP to attend the event by January 10, 2021.

The Zoom link will be sent to those who RSVP prior to the event.